

PALM SUNDAY. April 10 2022

Lk 19, 28-40

GOSPEL

Ecological value
Peace

This day we remember the entry of Jesus into the city of Jerusalem mounted on a young donkey (colt). Why on a donkey and not on a horse or an imperial chariot? In Jesus' time, soldiers generally entered conquered cities on horseback. And the kings arrived in their imperial chariots.

Jesus, on the other hand, enters mounted on a donkey, which he did not even own. This means that his reign is not to conquer or subdue but to bring peace to all. In some countries we make the procession with the image of Jesus on the donkey, we greet and sing; thus, we express the joy of receiving the peace that Jesus brings to our lives.

The simple people received Jesus with great hope. Their joy was expressed in cheers. In addition, as Jesus passed, they spread their cloaks on the road, is what the evangelist Luke tells us, who omits the branches in his story. Instead, Matthew, Mark, and John do mention that people waved palms and tree branches at Jesus' arrival.

Maze: Jesus is about to enter Jerusalem, and the people go out to meet him in the streets. Help these children to reach Him.

This Sunday we will hear how the people of Jerusalem take to the streets to acclaim Jesus. And they do it by shouting. To find out what they are shouting, follow the movements of the chess knight (three vertical and one horizontal or three horizontal and one vertical), and starting from where the arrow is, you will be able to read.

Every Palm Sunday, we Catholics also prepare ourselves with palms and branches, and with joy we recognize that Jesus is the King of our lives. As ecological boys and girls that we are, and following the Gospel of Luke, we can replace the bouquet with a white handkerchief, which is also a sign of peace.

If you replace the numbers with letters, you will read an important reflection from today's Gospel.

FIND THE 8 DIFFERENCES

Prayer
 Lord, make me
 an instrument of your
 peace.
 Where there is
 hatred,
 let me sow love;
 where there is injury,
 pardon;
 where there is doubt,
 faith;
 where there is
 despair,
 hope;
 where there is
 darkness, light;
 and where there is
 sadness, joy.
 Amen.
